

I urge you to leave xm sattelite radio alone. I pay for the service, and in our free market society, we not regulate to protect one business from another. Building a better mouse trap is fundamental the growth and prosperity of this nation. Let them compete, and allow the consumer to choose without legislative interference.

Thank you,
Phil Conlon